Jack McCloy called me from Frankfurt to urge that the answer to the Soviet note not be held up. He told me ~~about~~ he had gone to Paris yesterday but agreement on the financial division had not been reached. He called my attention to the publication in Le Monde of a purported secret report by Admiral Fechteler.

Secretary's office.

Preliminary briefing about CIA matters by Messrs. Matthews, Nolting, Allison, Bonbright, Joyce, and Krentz, after which Allen Dulles, Frank Wisner, and Colonel Sill joined the group.

Mr. Young, the desk officer, came in with Mr. Yusuke Tsurumi, a leading Japanese business man who is planning to run for the Diet.

Gave a lunch for M. Jean Baylot, Prefect of Police of Paris, Jamie Bonbright, and Ridge Knight.

Attended a long meeting in Secretary Lovett's conference room on Southeast Asia. Present: Messrs. Lovett, Foster, Pace, Kimball, Finletter, Allison, Bohlen, Nitze, Matthews, and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Saw the Secretary.

Chip Bohlen and Bob Joyce came in and reported on the meeting in Princeton.
